ABOUT YOUR FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE

New Student Orientation (NSO)

NSO is where you truly start to become an IU Hoosier. You'll meet advisors, faculty, and current students; register for fall courses; and learn about opportunities, services, and traditions waiting for you at IU. A two-day program, NSO takes place between June 10 and July 21 and includes a complete parent orientation.

IUBeginnings

Explore the possibility of an IUBeginnings adventure. IUBeginnings trips are held each August before Welcome Week. Choose from outdoor adventures, arts and culture, service, and more. Your adventure will ease you into college life and introduce you to a great group of new friends.

Welcome Week

Your orientation experience continues when you arrive on campus in the fall to start your first year. Be sure to jump into all that Welcome Week has to offer: academic and involvement connections, IU culture and traditions, and making new friends. It's all here!

Throughout Your First Year

We're here to help. Through our IU Guides, who help you find your way to class in August, our monthly newsletters that keep you in touch, and our many programs connecting you with the life of the campus, we are invested in your success. We're here to help make the first year at IUB your experience. This is our part in Fulfilling the Promise.

FINANCIAL AID, STUDENT ACCOUNTS, AND STUDENT RECORDS

Important Dates and Timelines

March 10, 2015—File your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) electronically at www.fafsa.ed.gov as soon after January 1 as possible. Your FAFSA must be received by the Federal Processor by March 10 to be considered an on-time application. Because of limited funding, some aid sources will not be available if the FAFSA was not on-time. Use estimated information if you have not yet filed your taxes.

The IU FAFSA code is 001809.

Mid-March of your senior year	Financial aid awarded; freshmen receive Financial Aid Notifications
May 1, 2015	Enrollment deposit deadline
June-July before your freshman year at IU	Determine the necessity of borrowing with Federal Parent PLUS Loans and/or private student loans
Late July before your freshman year at IU	Freshmen who have been awarded financial aid will need to accept any loans in OneStart and complete their Master Promissory Notes and Entrance Counseling at studentloan.gov
August 10, 2015	Bursar bill for fall tuition, fees, and housing is due
August 24, 2015	Fall semester classes begin

Costs for 2014 - 2015

	RESIDENT	NONRESIDENT
Tuition & Fees	$10,388	$33,240
Room & Board*	$9,494	$9,494
Books & Supplies*	$1,500	$1,500
Total Direct Costs	$21,382	$44,234
Transportation*	$930	$930
Personal*	$2,106	$2,106
Total Cost of Attendance	$24,418	$47,270

 These are averages and actual costs can vary by student based on student choice and travel habits.*

Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loans are offered through the U.S. Department of Education's Federal Direct Loan Program. Parent PLUS Loans are available to assist the parent/step-parent of the dependent student in supporting educational expenses. To be eligible, the parent borrower must not be in default on any federal education loans and must be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen. The Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan requires an online loan application and credit approval by the Department of Education.

For more information on parent and student loans, visit the following websites: studentcentral.indiana.edu, studentloans.gov, and studentaid.ed.gov.

Financial Aid Awareness

Knowing your cost to attend Indiana University Bloomington and your funding sources will help you plan for your college education. You can estimate your cost of education by subtracting the aid you are eligible to receive based on your Financial Aid Notification letter from the costs noted above. If your aid does not cover your cost to attend, this will be the gap you may need to cover in personal funds or additional debt. Investigate and apply for all sources of gift aid (scholarships) to reduce your overall gap in covering your cost. If you plan to fund some of your education with debt, plan ahead to determine how much debt you can afford in the future. Financial experts recommend that you limit your borrowing to 15% or less of your anticipated future take-home income on student and consumer debt payments. Studentloans.gov is a great resource to learn about student loans, repayment plans, and calculators.
